Community Responses to COVID-19:
Supporting Tenants through Economic Hardships

DE NAHRO is sponsoring a Free 3-part webinar series discussing how COVID-19 has caused a housing crisis for low and moderate income families. Speakers will focus on the funding and programs available through the CARES ACT; Court Eviction Process; and ways Management Companies are working with tenants to keep them in their homes.

All Sessions are 10:00am – 11:00am

November 6, 2020 CARES ACT Overview

What is available under the CARES ACT and how to access the programs. Speakers will go into detail what low income Delawareans have available to them and where they need to go to access this funding.

Speakers: Cindy Deakyne, Delaware State Housing Authority
Nicole Waters, New Castle County
Kelsey Daniels, Senator Chris Coons Staff

November 13, 2020 Evictions & Mitigation

What are the current eviction rules and processes in place? Learn where JP Court currently stands with tenants in arrears and what they foresee in the next couple of months. How this impacts the tenants and landlords of low income rental units.

Speakers: Renee Louis, Eviction Lab
Chief Magistrate Alan Davis, Justice of the Peace Court

November 20, 2020 Supporting Residents in Times of Crisis

How management companies are working with residents during Covid-19: new income re-certifications, state rental assistance and supportive services coordination; and a discussion of the Eviction Moratorium impact in Delaware.

Speakers: Tim Lamberto, Vice President of Property Management, LNWA/Arbor Management
Petra Tubia, Manager of Compliance, LNWA/Arbor Management
Denise Neale, Manager of Training, LNWA/Arbor Management

DE NAHRO Annual Meeting will be November 20, 2020 at 10:00am prior to the Supporting Residents session. Agenda items for the Annual Meeting will be:

-Election of new Board Members
-Update of DE NAHRO 2019 Accomplishments
